| 2. Director of Industries, Himachal Pradesh. | Member |
| 3. The Deputy Chief Officer/Assistant Chief Officer of the Regional Offices of the Rural Credit Department of the Reserve Bank of India to be nominated by the Reserve Bank of India. | Member |
| 4. The Registrar, Co-operative Societies, Himachal Pradesh. | Member-Secretary. |

2. The terms and conditions of this Committee will be to examine all aspects of Khadi and Village Industries Co-operatives in depth and to suggest measures to rejuvenate the Co-operative movement in this Sector. Among other things the committee will examine the following aspects:—

- Whether the organisation of Khadi and V.I. Societies are proper co-operative line to service the village artisans and workers? Whether these societies are working as genuine co-operatives and vested interests are not allowed to control them?
- Whether these societies are viable? If not, what steps should be taken to make them viable? What should be the criteria of viability in respect of production and service type of co-operatives in the State? Whether there is any need of reorienting the structure of the village industries co-operatives itself as has been done in Maharashtra by organising block level artisan multipurpose service co-operatives with proper state assistance.
- Whether there are trained Secretary/Manager in the societies? If no, what measures are to be taken to make them available trained Secretaries/Managers to these societies? How for, the Government official can be made incharge of these societies as Managers/Secretaries as has been done in Maharashtra by attaching co-operative extension officers with the block level societies as Manager? Whether a cadre of trained Manager/Secretary can be formed by State, Board or Co-operative/Industrial Department? If so, what should be the sources to finance it?
- Whether there is proper supervision of these societies by trained co-operative supervisory staff? Has the Board adequate co-operative trained staff? What is the frequency of the visit of supervisory staff to these societies?
- Whether proper technical guidance is made available to these societies?
- Whether there is timely audit and proper co-ordination between the State Board and the Audit authority, particularly at the district level, for regular and expeditious audit of these societies?
- Whether there is proper arrangement for administration of co-operative laws in respect of these societies? In case powers of Registrar Co-operatives Societies have been vested with the Chief Executive Officer/Secretary of the State Board, whether he has been provided with co-operative officers and staff to exercise these powers properly?
- Whether the societies are getting timely and adequate funds for their work after proper scrutiny of their application?
- Whether there is proper safe-guard of the fund disbursed to these societies? Whether there are regular verification of utilisation of the funds?
- Whether the societies are able to get raw material at reasonable prices? If not, what remedial measures are required to be taken?
- Whether there is any difficulty in marketing their finished products? If so, what remedial measures are required to be taken?

12. What are the other difficulties and problems, faced by these societies, and what remedial measures are required to be taken?
13. Whether any amendment in Co-operative Act, Rules or bye-laws are required to make the working of these societies more effective and efficient?
14. Whether there is proper co-ordination between the Board and the Reporting authority in respect of the collection and compilation of statistical data required by the R. B. I. for publication of its annual statistical reports on co-operatives.

3. The T. A. and D. A. will be paid to the official members as admissible under the rules. The T. A. and D. A. to the concerned official member viz. Chairman, Himachal Pradesh Khadi and Village Industries Board will be admissible as allowed to him as Chairman of the Board.

By order,
P. K. MATTOO,
Secretary.

Simla-2, the 20th January, 1976

No. 11-1/73-E&T. Sectt.—Whereas, the draft Himachal Pradesh Bottle Rules 1975, were published in the Rajpatra of Himachal Pradesh dated 14th November, 1975 under notification of even number, dated 12th November, 1975 for inviting the objections and suggestions from all persons to be affected thereby within a period of 15 days from the date of its publication.

2. And whereas no objections/suggestions have been received on the said draft rules within the prescribed period, now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (d) of section 58 of the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 (1 of 1914) as is applicable in the areas comprised in Himachal Pradesh immediately, before 1st November, 1966, the Governor of Himachal Pradesh proposes to make the following rules entitled as “The Himachal Pradesh Excise Bottle Rules, 1975”.

1. (1) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Excise Bottle Rules, 1975.

- (2) These shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) ‘Act’ means the Punjab Excise Act, 1914;
- (b) ‘agent’ means a person or firm, who or which has been authorised in writing by a licensed distillery in the State to buy and store excise bottles on its behalf;
- (c) ‘bottle’ means excise bottles;
- (d) ‘distillery’ means the premises, where under a licence, issued under the Punjab Excise Act, 1914, power potable or Industrial alcohol is manufactured;

- (e) “Excise and Taxation Commissioner” means the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh.

3. Bottles to be used only for bottling of spirit.—Except with the permission of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner or any other officer authorised in this behalf, no excise bottle shall be used for any purpose other than the bottling of spirit in accordance with a licence granted under the Punjab Excise Act, 1914.

4. Prohibition of export.—Unless the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, by any general or special order otherwise, directs, no excise bottle shall be exported outside the territories of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

5. Restrictions on sale.—Excise bottles may be sold to a licensed distillery or to the authorised agent of such distillery. The sale of excise bottles to any other person or firm is prohibited.

6. Possession of bottles.—Except when otherwise permitted by the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the possession or storage of more than twenty empty excise bottles is prohibited, save by a distillery, or by the authorised agent of a distillery subject to any general or special order, which may be passed in this connection by the Excise and Taxation Commissioner; there is no limit to the number of excise bottles which may be stored by a distillery, or the authorised agent of a distillery.

7. Authorised agents.—For the purpose of rules 4 and 5, an authorised agent of a distillery shall mean a person, or firm, who or which has been authorised in writing by a licensed distillery in the State to buy and store excise bottles on its behalf. In every case, where in such a letter of authorisation is issued, the distillery concerned shall send a copy thereof to the office of the Excise and Taxation Commissioner, with the endorsement showing the address of the authorised agent. The Excise and Taxation Commissioner, shall have the right to cancel any such letter of authorisation, if he considers that the authorised agent is a unsuitable person.

8. Exceptions.—These rules do not apply to the possession and use at any time of not more than twenty excise bottles for domestic purposes in any house.
